The following constitutes Amendment No. 27 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (“Amendment No. 27”). This Amendment No. 27 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

As previously disclosed, on February 7, 2022, Warren G. Lichtenstein, James R. Henderson, Audrey A. McNiff and Martin Turchin (the “Director Plaintiffs”) filed suit in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware seeking, among other things, declaratory relief relating to Steel Holdings’ nomination of the Director Plaintiffs and its other nominees for election to the Board of Directors of the Issuer, a nominal party to the lawsuit, at its 2022 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”). The Director Plaintiffs filed the lawsuit due to disagreements among the Issuer’s evenly divided eight-member Board, which consists of the four Director Plaintiffs and four other directors—Eileen P. Drake, Thomas Corcoran, Kevin Chilton and Lance Lord (the “Director Defendants”), over matters relating to Steel Holdings’ nomination and the Annual Meeting.

On February 15, 2022, the Court granted the Director Plaintiffs’ motion for a temporary restraining order subject to certain modifications and directed the parties to submit an implementing order. The parties were unable to agree and submitted competing forms of order.

On February 23, 2022, the Court issued a letter opinion granting the Director Plaintiffs’ proposed order and rejecting the Director Defendants’ proposed order. Among other things, the Court rejected the Director Defendants’ proposal to require the Issuer to fund up to $20 million of the parties’ proxy solicitation expenses. The Court also rejected the Director Defendants’ proposal to require the Issuer to reimburse the parties’ litigation costs for affirmative claims.

Consistent with the proposal made by the Director Plaintiffs, the order entered by the Court of Chancery (the “Order”) imposes the following prohibitions so long as the Board is evenly divided regarding the election contest:

- None of the directors nor any of the Issuer's officers, employees or anyone purporting to act on the Issuer's behalf may make any public statement, issue any press release or make any disclosure on behalf of the Issuer in support of the election efforts of any candidate for election at the Annual Meeting without the prior written approval of the Board or a duly authorized committee; and
- None of the directors nor any of the Issuer's officers, employees or anyone purporting to act on the Issuer's behalf may use Issuer funds or other Issuer resources in support of the election efforts of any candidate for election at the Annual Meeting without the prior written approval of the Board or a duly authorized committee.

Consistent with the proposal made by the Director Plaintiffs, the Order also extends the deadline for submitting director nominations imposed by the Issuer's advance notice bylaw solely to the extent necessary to permit the Director Defendants to nominate a competing slate of directors on or before February 28, 2022 if they choose to do so.

On February 24, 2022, Steel Holdings issued a press release announcing the Court's decision to grant the Order. The press release also includes an open letter to stockholders providing clarity and context pertaining to recent events, including Steel Holdings' decision to spend its own resources to nominate a slate of seven highly qualified director candidates for election at the Annual Meeting. A copy of the press release and open letter to stockholders is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Steel Partners Pleased by Court's Decision to Grant Temporary Restraining Order Preventing the Unauthorized Use of Aerojet Rocketdyne's Resources in Connection With 2022 Annual Meeting

Issues Letter to Fellow Shareholders Regarding Steel Partners' Decision to Nominate Its Own Slate of Seven Highly Qualified Director Candidates

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Steel Partners Holdings L.P. (together with its affiliates, "Steel Partners" or "we"), which owns approximately 5.2% of the outstanding shares of Aerojet Rocketdyne Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AJRD) ("Aerojet Rocketdyne" or the "Company") and has nominated seven highly qualified candidates for election to the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") at the 2022 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting"), today provided an update pertaining to the legal proceeding initiated in the Delaware Court of Chancery (the "Court") by four members of its slate – sitting Board members Warren G. Lichtenstein, James R. Henderson, Audrey A. McNiff and Martin Turchin – against Chief Executive Officer and Director Eileen Drake, Director Thomas Corcoran, Director Kevin Chilton and Director Lance Lord:

- The Court has granted a Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") prohibiting Ms. Drake, Mr. Corcoran, Mr. Chilton and Mr. Lord from using Aerojet Rocketdyne's resources to advance their personal positions in a proxy contest while the Board is deadlocked over the identity of the Company's slate of director candidates for the Annual Meeting.
- The Court's order prohibits any Aerojet Rocketdyne employee, director, advisor or agent from issuing any public statement, press release or corporate disclosure in the name of the Company in support of any candidate standing for election at the Annual Meeting without prior written approval from the Board or a duly authorized committee of the Board.
- The Court's order prohibits any Aerojet Rocketdyne employee, director, advisor or agent from taking action on behalf of the Company or using the Company's resources to support the election efforts of any candidate standing for election at the Annual Meeting without prior written approval from the Board or a duly authorized committee of the Board.

In addition, Steel Partners issued the below letter to shareholders to provide clarity and context pertaining to recent events, including its decision to spend its own resources to nominate director candidates for election at the Annual Meeting.

Fellow Shareholders,

Steel Partners is one of the largest shareholders of Aerojet Rocketdyne, with ownership of approximately 5.2% of the Company's outstanding shares. We are also a long-term shareholder that has spent nearly 15 years helping the Company evolve and create meaningful value.

We recognize that recent events – including our nomination of director candidates, Lockheed Martin Corporation's termination of its acquisition of the Company and legal proceedings in Delaware – have created uncertainty. Unfortunately, despite our best efforts in recent weeks, we have been unable to reach a compromise that benefits all shareholders. Given our attempts to compromise have been rebuffed and the Court has granted our nominees' request for a TRO, we feel it is the appropriate time to provide the clarity and context you deserve:

1. Please trust that Steel Partners' interests are squarely aligned with your interests. In addition to maintaining a roughly $150 million stake in Aerojet Rocketdyne, we have a long history of committing our energy and time to pursuing strong results for all of the Company's shareholders. Since we first received representation on the Board in March 2008, the Company's shares have appreciated more than 250%. We have put forth our own slate of director candidates with the goal of building on these results.
2. Steel Partners was committed to the Lockheed Martin Corporation transaction from the day it was announced in December 2020 until the day it was terminated. With that said, when it became clear over the course of 2021 that the transaction faced significant regulatory headwinds, we began advocating for management to take logical and responsible steps to prepare for a potential standalone future. Unfortunately, our concerns appear to have fallen on deaf ears.
3. Steel Partners felt compelled to nominate a slate of highly qualified candidates for election to the Board after the U.S. Federal Trade Commission filed a lawsuit to block the transaction. We believe our nomination was a justifiable response to the Company having a gridlocked Board and certain officers and directors recently taking actions without Board consultation, including spending shareholders' capital on high-priced advisors and issuing unauthorized material announcements in the name of the Company. All of this has occurred despite Steel Partners trying to reach a negotiated resolution, including by proposing a slate for the 2022 Annual Meeting that included all but one sitting Board member.
4. Steel Partners believes you should heavily scrutinize the motivation behind the disclosed investigation into an alleged conflict between Executive Chairman Warren G. Lichtenstein and Chief Executive Officer Eileen Drake. The inquiry does not involve allegations of financial impropriety, sexual harassment, illegality or similar topics that come to mind when an investigation is disclosed. The focus of the inquiry, in substance, pertains to disagreements between Mr. Lichtenstein and Ms. Drake regarding Mr. Lichtenstein's repeated requests that management prepare for a standalone future and Ms. Drake's concerns that she might be replaced.
5. Steel Partners has nominated a seven-member slate that is completely focused on value creation. We have assembled a diverse slate with corporate governance acumen, finance expertise, operational knowledge and transaction experience. Our slate, which includes four incumbents, also has vast knowledge of the Company and the industry. If elected, our nominees intend to implement a two-pronged strategy that entails implementing a new operating plan focused on growing over the long-term and reviewing strategic alternatives that could maximize shareholder value in the immediate-term. Implementing a new operating plan that prioritizes growth and reduces excessive overhead is critical. By having a credible go-forward vision, we believe Aerojet Rocketdyne can attract great leaders, maintain an enthusiastic employee base and innovate in a manner that inspires public and private sector partners across the world.

In the weeks to come, our nominees will share further details regarding their ideas and proposed strategy for the Company, while also remaining open to reaching a compromise that advances shareholders' best interests. Thank you for your consideration.
