On May 4, 2022, Warren Lichtenstein, Executive Chairman of Aerojet Rocketdyne Holdings, Inc., issued the following press release:

Aerojet Rocketdyne Executive Chairman Warren Lichtenstein Calls for Disclosure of Result of Committee's Investigation into His Actions

Believes Shareholders Deserve to Know the Result to Make Informed Decisions

Reaffirms Desire to Hold 2022 Annual Meeting on June 27th, Provided Trial Regarding Eileen Drake's Misuse of Corporate Resources is Completed in Late May, as Expected

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aerojet Rocketdyne Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AJRD) ("Aerojet Rocketdyne" or the "Company") Executive Chairman Warren Lichtenstein, who, collectively with his affiliates and the participants in his solicitation, owns approximately 5.2% of the Company's outstanding shares, today called on the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") to authorize the public release of the memorandum delivered to him and Eileen Drake summarizing the findings and conclusions of the Non-Management Committee of the Board on the months-long investigation into Mr. Lichtenstein's actions.

Mr. Lichtenstein issued the following statement:

"Shareholders deserve to know what the Committee has reported to me and Eileen Drake about the investigation that Ms. Drake has squandered so much of their money on – and on which she has pinned so much hope of discrediting me. Counsel for Ms. Drake indicated in a Delaware Court hearing on May 3, 2022 that the investigation has concluded – thereby publicizing this fact. Given this state of affairs, we believe that shareholders are entitled to learn what Ms. Drake and I have been told about the investigation, instead of being left in the dark.

We have therefore sent a letter to Company counsel requesting that the Board authorize the public release of the culmination of the Committee's work. Because the investigation is complete and the process has played out, and because counsel for Ms. Drake has publicly mischaracterized the investigation, there is no longer any justifiable basis to keep the result a secret.

We believe shareholders should have the result available to them so they can make a fully informed decision about the future of the Company. That is why we are also reiterating our desire to hold the Aerojet Annual Meeting on June 27th – at which point we expect shareholders to have been able to absorb critical information from the trial of Ms. Drake for alleged misuse of corporate resources.

We are disappointed that Ms. Drake continues to use Aerojet Rocketdyne as her personal piggy bank in a desperate bid to maintain power. Her efforts to call a Special Meeting are part and parcel of this strategy – forcing shareholders to potentially foot the bill for multiple solicitations. We believe it is egregious that Ms. Drake attempted to get access to up to $10 million of Company resources to wage this proxy fight. In an attempt to put a stop to this waste of shareholders' money, we stand ready to pledge not to seek reimbursement for any of our proxy fight costs if Ms. Drake agrees to do the same.

We look forward to continuing to protect shareholders in the weeks ahead and ensuring they are fully apprised of all relevant facts before voting at the Annual Meeting."

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains certain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that reflect Steel Partners Holdings L.P.'s ("SPLP") current expectations and projections about its future results, performance, prospects and opportunities. SPLP identifies these forward-looking statements by using words such as "may," "should," "expect," "hope," "anticipate," "believe," "intend," "plan," "estimate," "will" and similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are based on information currently available to SPLP and are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause its actual results, performance, prospects or opportunities to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These factors include, without limitation, the adverse effects of the COVID-19 pandemic to SPLP's business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows; material weaknesses in SPLP's internal control over financial reporting; fluctuations in crude oil and other commodity prices; substantial cash funding requirements that may be required in the future as a result of certain of SPLP's subsidiaries' sponsorship of defined benefit pension plans; significant costs, including remediation costs, as a result of complying with environmental laws or failing to comply with other extensive regulations, including banking regulations; the impact of climate change legislation or regulations restricting emissions of greenhouse gases on costs and demand for SPLP's services; impacts to SPLP's liquidity or financial condition as a result of legislative and regulatory actions; SPLP's ability to maintain sufficient cash flows from operations or through financings to meet its obligations under its senior credit facility; risks associated with SPLP's business strategy of acquisitions; losses sustained in SPLP's investment portfolio; the impact of interest rates on SPLP's investments, such as increased interest rates or the use of a SOFR based interest rate in SPLP's credit facilities; reliance on the intellectual property owned by others and SPLP's ability to protect its own intellectual property and licenses; risks associated with conducting operations outside of the United States, including changes in trade policies and the costs or limitations of acquiring materials and products used in SPLP's operations; risks of litigation; impacts to SPLP's WebBank business as a result of the highly regulated environment in which it operates, as well as the risk of litigation regarding the processing of PPP loans and the risk that the SBA may not fund some or all PPP loan guaranties; potentially disruptive impacts from economic downturns in various sectors; loss of customers by SPLP's subsidiaries as a result of not maintaining long-term contracts with customers; risks related to SPLP's key members of management and the senior leadership team; SPLP's agreement to indemnify its manager pursuant to its management agreement, which may incentivize the manager to take unnecessary risks; risks related to SPLP's common and preferred units, including potential price reductions for current unitholders if additional common or preferred units are issued, as well as the lack of an active market for SPLP's units as a result of transfer restrictions contained in SPLP's partnership agreement; the ability of SPLP's subsidiaries to fully use their tax benefits; impacts as a result of changes in tax rates, laws or regulations, including U.S. government tax reform; labor disruptions as a result of vaccine mandated by the United States federal government. These statements involve significant risks and uncertainties, and no assurance can be given that the actual results will be consistent with these forward-looking statements. Investors should read carefully the factors described in the "Risk Factors" section of SPLP's filings with the SEC, including SPLP's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021, for information regarding risk factors that could affect SPLP's results. Any forward-looking statement made in this press release speaks only as of the date hereof. Except as otherwise required by law, SPLP undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, changed circumstances, or any other reason.
